SOCIAL AND SPATIAL ORGANIZATION OF ARCHITECTURAL SITES

In the article the theoretical questions of social-spatial organization of the architect design subjects are considered. In human habitat social-ecological, social-interactive and social-functional ways of zoning are separated which inseparably connected with each other and social-interactive zoning has a high priority.

1. LANGBARD AND HIS THEORETICAL VIEWS

The article dedicated to the theoretical views of outstanding Soviet architect, Honored Art Worker of the Byelorussian Soviet Socialist Republic Professor Iosif Grigorievich Langbard (1882-1951).

Theoretical views of this famous architect covered a wide range of different professional matters from general problems connected with the process of restoration of the war-revenged towns of Byelorussia during the Great Patriotic War to preserving historical and cultural heritage and architectural traditions of the Republic/ The contribution of LG. Landbard to the theory of socialist culture of Byelorussia can't be overestimated. The article helps to estimate the talent of this person in a new light, to estimate his contribution to Byelorussian culture and his work wai fully devoted to the service to Byelorussian culture
